WASHINGTON HERALD BUREAU,

(Bell Telephone 69.) 529 King Street Alexandria, Va., May 16.-Wade Goodwin, agent for the Robert Portner Brewing Company, at Manassas, Va., was fined $50, before Mayor Sinclair this afternoon, for selling a malt beverage known as Amberine, manufactured by the Portner Brewing Company, of this city.

The mayor decided that he had a right to sell the beverage under the Byrd liquor law, in any place within the State, with the exception of local option districts.

An appeal was noted, and will be heard Jane 1, in the Circuit Court for Prince William County, at Manassas, Va., Judge J. B. T. Thornton presiding. This is the first case of its character decided in Virginia since the enactment of the Byrd law. A big legal battle will follow to decide the right of brewing companies dispose of the beverage in local option districts. Attorney Samuel G. Brent, of this city, represented Goodwin, and Attorney Hutchinson appeared for the prose-

It is said that the anti-saloon people brought the case to an issue. Amberine, it is claimed, contains less than 2 per cent alcohol, and would average about an ounce to a half gallon of the beverage. Its manufacturers claim that it is a nonintoxicating drink.

The following judges and clerks have been chosen by the Alexandria County electrical board to serve for the coming year. Washington district-Judges, W. T. Weaver, Frank Upham, William Marcey; clerks, Bertram Foster, Ross Wright, Arlington district-Judges, Horace Gilbert, Fred Graham, Frank Ball; clerks, S. P. Wright, Thomas R. Gray. Jefferson district-Judges, George W. Zachery, Jessie Procise, J. E. Sickles; clerks, Fred Bashford, Fred Beverill. Potomac district— Judges, Stephen H. Fegan, Edmund Clark, John W. Varney; clerks, J. R. Thompson, John E. Marcher.

According to a telegram received here this afternoon by E. J. Fleming from E. M. Wampler, the latter was unable to reach here to-day to inspect the registration books of J. T. Lawler, of the Fourth ward. Mr. Wampler will, however, come here Monday and look over the books. It is not thought he will push the proposed President William Stewart says Montgomery's shortage exceeds $1,300,000. Western Pennsylvania was startled on May 7 by the announcement that Montgomery was a defaulter to the extent of $469,000. The late Senator Matthew Stanley Quay's son Richard and G. E. Tener signed his bond for $100,000. To-day $125,000 in bonds were also found to be missing. A second warrant followed. It was served by United States Marshal Stevens, Mont-gomery's childhood friend. Montgomery's two sisters begged President Stewart to accept $10,000, their life savings, toward making the alleged short age good. Stewart refused. The cashier's bondsmen refused to put up the additional $200,000 bail demanded. Marshal Stevens threw his arms around Montgomery's neek, and with tears streaming, muttered about duty and locked him in a cell.
